August 2023

Dear MERS Families:

It is the goal of the Manalapan-Englishtown Regional School District to continuously evaluate and improve the educational programs of the district to help our students learn and grow with the skills necessary to thrive as twenty-first century learners.

On August 22nd, curricular program updates were presented to the Board of Education and then adopted for implementation for September 2023.

We invite you to view the presentation and the PDF versions of the Manalapan-Englishtown Regional School District's revised curriculum guides by clicking on the links below.

By September 1st, you will be able to view these final adopted copies of all district curriculum guides on the MERS website. To easily access such, you can also click here to reach Atlas, our online database which stores our curriculum guides.

Respectfully,

Jodi Pepchinski
Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Human Resources
