August 2022

Dear Parents/Guardians:

It is the goal of the Manalapan-Englishtown Regional School District to continuously evaluate and improve the educational programs of the district to help our students learn and grow with the skills necessary to thrive as twenty-first century learners. On August 2nd, curricular program updates were presented to the Board of Education.

We invite you to view the presentation and the draft versions of the Manalapan-Englishtown Regional School District's revised curriculum guides to be implemented in September 2022 by clicking on the links below.

At the end of August, you will be able to view the final adopted copies of all district curriculum guides which will be available on the MERS website. To easily access such, you can also click here to reach Atlas, our online database which stores our curriculum guides.

Respectfully,

Jodi Pepchinski
Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Human Resources
