Lawns in NJ need about 1" of water per week. The best time of day to water is late evening through the early morning. An empty can placed near the lawn can be used to measure rainfall or irrigation amounts. More info at: njwatersavers.rutgers.edu